

TERRY FOX HUMANITARIAN AWARD PROGRAM

AWARD VALUE: The maximum value of the award is $28,000, dispersed over four years. A stipend of $7,000 is issued directly to the institution in two installments of $3,500 each. The award is tenable for a maximum of four years (sooner if a first degree is obtained).

This Award is highly competitive, and The Committee consider the most suitable candidates to be those who demonstrate the ideals of Terry Fox – true humanitarians, individuals who are compassionate and altruistic in their intention to improve the lives of others and human welfare overall.

Terry Fox Scholars are “doers” with the ability to inspire and make a positive impact on the lives of others. While Terry’s obstacle was a physical one, we consider any circumstance that requires a demonstration of courage and fortitude. Indeed, a myriad of obstacles exist. Tenacity in the face of adversity is of the utmost importance to us.

Although the Selection Committee will look for marks of distinction with regard to the persistent pursuit of excellence in academic, athletic and civic life; these are not factors we weigh as heavily as courage and humanitarianism.

Interested in students who demonstrate compassion and a keen commitment to easing the suffering of others, especially those who address critical needs in society.
